

2017 NADFAS AGM - Birmingham Town Hall

Monday 15th May

Young Arts Awards to be presented at the Royal Birmingham Society of Arts
From May 8th the work of the finalists will be staged at the RBSA to allow time for viewing

Tuesday 16th May

Chairman's Reception at the Barber Institute with June Robinson, CEO and Trustees
An open discussion between Nicola Kalinsky (Barber Institute) & Charlotte Higgins (Chief Culture Writer, Guardian) will provide an interesting view behind the scenes.
Free parking is available with an opportunity to see the galleries "out of hours"

Wednesday 17th May

Anne Michael an organ scholar from Birmingham Conservatoire will open the 2017 AGM.
The organ at the Town Hall was commissioned for the opening in 1834
The AGM will finish with a special event - to be confirmed
The AGM is open to all.

Wednesday 17th May

The Chairman's Dinner will take place in the Council House in Birmingham in the company of the Chairman, CEO and Trustees

Thursday 18th May

The varied programme of Visits provides an opportunity to share the culture of Region with NADFAS visitors from the UK, Europe and the wider world. If you think you know your region, think again as each visit includes something special.

Every member and their guests are invited to apply for tickets for the above events
- the cost of which is shown clearly in the NADFAS Review and the website